Rockford Spine Center Surgeons Named Among Top 200

Rockford, IL (May 4, 2012) - Rockford Spine Center is pleased to announce it has been included on the Top 208 Spine Surgeons and Specialists to Know in 2012 by Becker's Orthopedic, Spine & Pain Management Review. The list is released annually.

Physicians included on this list were chosen based on their professional accomplishments, leadership in orthopedic and spine organizations and research in the field. Many of the spine surgeons included have made significant contributions to the advancement of spine surgery through research and technology development as well as by training spine surgeons of the future. Becker's Orthopedic, Spine & Pain Management Review is an online and print publication dedicated to providing the most updated information on business and legal issues in orthopedic, spine and pain management fields.

Rockford Spine Center's innovative physicians are leaders in their respective fields and are dedicated exclusively to the treatment of the spine. The three partners are fellowship trained spine surgeons who perform several hundred spinal surgeries a year. It's part of what sets Rockford Spine Center apart and makes it one of the top referral centers for spine care in the Midwest. Not only have the physicians gone the extra mile through their education, but they continue to explore the latest techniques to diagnose and treat the most complex spine conditions.
