Rockford Spine Center Surgeons Awarded Compassionate Doctors Awards

Rockford, IL (July 17, 2014) - Rockford Spine Center is pleased to announce all four of its physicians have been awarded the Vitals Compassionate Doctor Award for 2013. Spine Surgeons Dr. Michael Roh, Dr. Christopher Sliva and Dr. Fred Sweet, along with Physiatrist Dr. Marie Walker, earned the distinction for the third consecutive year.

The Vitals Compassionate Doctor recognition is bestowed to physicians who have received near perfect scores as voted by patients through various ratings on the Vitals website. The award is a compilation of “overall” and “bedside manner” ratings.

Vitals works to provide increased transparency of quality by bringing together actionable data, digital tools and consumer expertise to help consumers make more informed, higher-quality and lower-cost decisions about their care. The surgeons at Rockford Spine Center take great pride in the level of service they provide to their patients and are very grateful for the positive ratings they have received to earn this honor.
